

The Funding Update, Part 2

September 2013

FOUNDATION GRANTS

YOUTH and HEALTH

Rite-Aid Foundation, 10/15/13

Children's health and well-being.

Eligible: Non-profits in existence for at least one year and in good financial standing.

Range: Up to $50K

<https://kidcents.riteaid.com/#Charities>

SPARK Grant-Finder Tool

Helps you locate funding for your Physical Education, After School, Early Childhood or Coordinated School Health program. Grants can be used for curriculum, teacher training, or equipment. The current list contains over 20 opportunities nationwide. The site also has grant-writing resources.

Eligibility: Examine each funding opportunity description.

Range: Varies

<http://tinyurl.com/6q58aed>

INDIVIDUALS

Ron Brown Scholars

Ten to twenty students are selected annually to receive a total of $40,000 for a four-year scholarship.

Eligible: African-American high school seniors: citizen or permanent resident; high academic achievement; exceptional leadership; community service; financial need.

Range: $10k per year for 4 years

<http://tinyurl.com/l84hdur>

Healthy Young America Video Contest, 9/23/13

Cash prizes will be awarded to the creators of the best videos in three distinct categories: short film, song, or infographic.

Eligible: Open to all; youth-focused.

Range: Stay Healthy Kit to $6500

<http://tinyurl.com/mrurxdy>

The Pipeline Project: 21st Century Fellows, 9/30/13

Up to 20 fellowships for a year-long program to increase the level of diversity among staff in LGBT organizations and to increase the level of diversity in the leadership of the LGBT movement.

Eligible: Must be nominated by an organization that has: some LGBT programming; at least one person of color in a management role, operated for at least 5 years; a staff of at least 5 FTE; operating budget of at least $500K

Range: Leadership retreats, skills training and peer learning opportunities.

<http://tinyurl.com/mejk562>

Soros Justice Fellowships, 10/23/13

Projects that advance reform, spur debate, and catalyze change on a range of issues facing the U.S. criminal justice system.

Eligible: Individuals whose projects relate to reducing mass incarceration, challenging extreme punishment, and/or promoting justice system accountability.

Range: $58,700 to $100,250

<http://tinyurl.com/kyo7mge>

William Randolph Hearst Endowed Fellowship, 11/22/13

Internship: research, writing, logistical, administrative support for leadership initiatives, public programs, and convenings of the Aspen Institute Program on Philanthropy and Social Innovation (PSI) in Washington, DC.

Eligible: highly motivated, current, non-graduating graduate or undergraduate students from underrepresented communities of color; high academic achievement; excellent academic record; interest or experience in the social sector; excellent research and writing skills; financial need; U.S. citizenship or permanent residency (includes DACA)

Range: $2K for Fall and Spring; $4k for Summer

<http://tinyurl.com/2bpccj8>

Doris Duke Charitable Foundation/University of Chicago, 12/15/13

Up to 15 fellowships to support completion of dissertation and related research in child development.

Eligible: Doctoral students.

Range: Annual stipend of $25,000 for up to two years

<http://tinyurl.com/23jlyqv>

William T. Grant Foundation, 1/8/14

Scholarly research projects that inform policy and practice that affect youth development.

Eligible: Employee of a non-profit or a college.

Range: $25K to $600K

<http://tinyurl.com/cl44ue8>

OTHER

United Methodist Foundation of NE Ongoing

United Methodist projects in New England that are catalysts for ministry and growth in faithful personal and congregational financial stewardship.

Eligible: United Methodist Churches in New England.

Range: $500 to $1500

<http://tinyurl.com/lwgnlmg>